PHILADELPHIA, PA—(January 4, 2016)— Continuing on a 100 year tradition of presenting work by compelling contemporary photographers and printmakers, The Print Center is pleased to announce highlights from its Spring 2016 Exhibition and Programming schedule. These include an exhibition of photographs and related new publications from a selection of young American photographers; a show of experimental editions from New York's Lower East Side Printshop; and the second iteration of the acclaimed Philadelphia Art Book Fair. For full program details visit printcenter.org.

By The Book: New Photography Publications

February 4 - April 23, 2016

Thursday, February 4: Gallery talk 5:30pm; Opening Reception 6:00 - 8:00pm

By the Book: New Photography Publications will feature recently published books and related photographic prints by Keliy Anderson-Staley, Jesse Burke, Stephanie Bursese, David Hartt, Justine Kurland, Andrea Modica, Nadia Sablin and Will Steacy. Motivated by a booming interest in photo books, By the Book: New Photography Publications will examine the photographers' varied interests in compiling images into books, as well as the relationship between photographic prints as art objects and replicated images on the page. This exhibition has been curated by The Print Center's Jensen Bryan Curator John Caperton.
