Internship Program

The Print Center offers structured training in arts administration, curatorial work, gallery management and gallery sales to undergraduate and graduate students who, in turn, earn valuable college credit. Gallery Assistant Interns assist our small, team-oriented staff with day-to-day operations. Potential duties include: internet research, database entry and assistance with mailings, membership and donor relations, marketing and public relations. They learn fundamentals of fundraising, promotion and audience relations while assisting with daily organizational tasks and preparations for special events.

Eligibility

Internships are open to undergraduates, who have completed at least one year of college, graduate students or recent grads.

Time Commitment

The work schedules are flexible, though Interns can expect to work 8 - 20 hours each week. Additional hours include evening opening receptions for exhibitions, and at least one special event during the duration of the internship. Internships run for approximately three months, though in some circumstances, interns may be able to continue for a subsequent session.

Compensation

Internships are unpaid, and are frequently approved for class credit, depending on the specific requirements of each university.
