Nancy Hellebrand is one of Philadelphia's most highly regarded and renowned photographers. She studied with renowned masters Bill Brandt, Alexey Brodovitch and John Coplans, and was the first American to have a solo exhibition at The National Portrait Gallery, London. She has enjoyed many solo exhibitions in museums and galleries, and has been included in group exhibitions throughout the US and Europe.

Hellebrand has received prestigious fellowships from the Guggenheim Foundation and the National Endowment for the Arts. In addition to being collected by numerous museums, her work has been covered in every major publication from Aperture and Artforum to The New York Times, The New Yorker and The Village Voice.

Michelle Liao has been an esteemed Asian antiques dealer for over four decades. The Liao Collection is housed in a stunning 6,000 square foot space which showcases a fantastic array of artwork, textiles, furniture, artifacts and more. This is a visit not to be missed!
